The University of Utah School of Music announces a
PERCUSSION ADJUNCT FACULTY POSITION

POSITION SUMMARY:
- Drumline Instructor/Percussion Teacher (adjunct position)
- An average of 10 to 16 hours of work per week (no benefits).
- Compensation:
  $10,000 for Drumline instruction (an average of 10 hours of work per week in the Fall only).
  Additional compensation for percussion lessons dependent on qualifications and experience.
- Renewable annual appointment, begins August 1, 2018.
- Reports to Percussion Area Head, Dr. Michael Sammons.

DUTIES: Responsibilities include:
- Assist with the University of Utah drumline, including teaching and arranging, in coordination with the University of Utah Marching Band.
- Teach applied percussion lessons in the School of Music, as needed.

QUALIFICATIONS
- Earned Master degree in Percussion Performance, or its equivalent in professional experience.
- Experience working with and/or directing a drumline.
- Experience as a professional performer.
- College/University teaching experience desired.

REQUIRED APPLICATION MATERIALS
- Letter of application.
- Curriculum vitae.
- List of references with contact information.
- Audio/Video materials and recommendations may be requested at a later time.

PROCEDURE
The review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position has been filled. Candidates who proceed to the final level will be required to participate in a routine criminal background check and to provide official transcripts.

The University of Utah values candidates who have experience working in settings with students from diverse backgrounds, and possess a strong commitment to improving access to higher education for historically underrepresented students.

For more information, or to suggest nominations for this position, please contact Dr. Michael Sammons at mike.sammons@utah.edu